With Bugsy the Guinea Pig

Hey Parkway friends! I have been thinking a lot about you guys lately. I know that for some of you, your school schedules have changed. So, besides your new school routines, what else have you been up to? My buddies Lily and Kaitlyn like to go for bike rides, do crafts and we all enjoy bouncing on the trampoline as well. Sometimes when the girls are bouncing, I get very nervous, because I am afraid that I may bounce right off! However, that has never happened yet. I hope that you and your family are having fun and are making some fun family memories. I've had another interesting week and I would like to share it with you. When I was driving home from Rabbit's place last week, I stopped and gave a ride to two friends from work. I picked up a rabbit named Flopsy, and a turtle named Tucker. I thought Flopsy and Tucker were nice animals, so I thought I would help them out by giving them a ride. Well, after five minutes of riding together, the conversations in my car turned really bad. Flopsy and Tucker were sharing inappropriate jokes, they were making fun of my neighbours, and they were making fun of my driving. So, I pulled the car over and I asked them to get out. They were upset at me and they asked me what was wrong? I told them that their discussions were upsetting me, and that I didn't want to be around other animals who spoke that way. So, Flopsy and Tucker got out of my car. They felt bad for their behaviour, and they continued on their way. As I continued to drive home, I remembered a conversation that Krista and I had one day about the language that comes out of our mouth. She said that our words are very powerful and that Jesus is not pleased when we speak poorly about others. She also said that our words and conversations should be pleasing to others and to God. So my friends, I hope that you choose your words wisely and that you live in peace with your family and friends.

Bible lesson

James 1:19-26 New International Version (NIV)

<sup>19</sup> My dear brothers and sisters, take note of this: Everyone should be quick to listen, slow to speak and slow to become angry,

<sup>20</sup> because human anger does not produce the righteousness that God desires. <sup>21</sup> Therefore, get rid of all moral filth and the evil that is so prevalent and humbly accept the word planted in you, which can save you.

<sup>22</sup> Do not merely listen to the word, and so deceive yourselves. Do what it says. <sup>23</sup> Anyone who listens to the word but does not do what it says is like someone who looks at his face in a mirror <sup>24</sup> and, after looking at himself, goes away and immediately forgets what he looks like. <sup>25</sup> But whoever looks intently into the perfect law that gives freedom, and continues in it—not forgetting what they have heard, but doing it—they will be blessed in what they do.

<sup>26</sup> Those who consider themselves religious and yet do not keep a tight rein on their tongues deceive themselves, and their religion is worthless.

Bible discussion

1. What animal did Douglas talk about today to help illustrate our bible lesson?
2. What does this animal and our words have in common?
3. According to the bible, the words that we speak are powerful. Can you explain why?
4. Re-read James 1: 19. According to this verse, what is God telling us to do?
5. Share one thing that you learned from today's bible lesson.

Prayer

Dear Jesus,

Thank you for today's bible lesson on listening and doing. I pray that you would help me to speak words that are pleasing and honouring to you. In Jesus' name

Amen-

Before you Speak...

Fruit of the Spirit

Read John 16:8 to learn the role of the Holy Spirit. Then read Galatians 5:22-25. Fill in the blanks with the words at the bottom of the page.

“But the _____ of the Spirit is love, _____, peace, patience, _____, goodness, _____, gentleness, and self-control. Against such _____ there is no law. Those who belong to _____ have crucified the _____ with its desires. If we live by the _____, let us also walk by the Spirit.”
