With Bugsy the Guinea Pig

Greetings Parkway bakers and scavenger hunters! I heard that you guys had a blast on Wednesday afternoon! Way to go, bakers and scavenger hunters! Sorry that I missed you guys, I was away working. The cereal bars looked so yummy, but unfortunately I cannot consume that much sugar. However, the scavenger hunt looked super-fun, and next time I want to be included!

So, I am happy to say that we finished up the bunny house and Mr. and Mrs. Cox LOVE their new home, yay! Tucker, Flopsy and I worked long hours to ensure that everything was perfect for when the Cox family moved in. As we were leaving the building site last Friday, Tucker received a phone call from his father saying that his mother was rushed to the hospital. So, Tucker asked me to pray for his mom, and I did just that. Tucker's mom had been badly beaten up by a fox. She was peacefully working out in her garden when a big old fox came and attacked her. Tucker's mom, Annabell suffered many bruises, her left arm and leg are broken and her memory has been greatly affected from the fall. We were very concerned about Annabell. Tucker mentioned to me that he really enjoyed our Jesus conversation last week, and that he wanted to know more about who Jesus is. I shared more with Tucker about who Jesus is and about how much he loves him. Tucker asked me to pray for his mom so that she could be healed and that her memory would be restored. Together, Tucker and I prayed and we asked Jesus to heal her. After praying I told Tucker that we really need to believe in our hearts that Jesus can heal her. Later that week, Tucker, Flopsy and I went into the hospital to see Annabell and guess what? She wasn't there, she had been released! We drove to Tucker's parents house and Annabell was cooking some cabbage soup. She was standing on her healed leg, and stirring the cabbage soup with her healed hand, singing the happy bunny song! WOW, we could not believe our eyes, Annabell had completely recovered from her terrible attack with the fox.

With joyful tears in my eyes, I looked at Tucker and said, "Jesus healed your mom!" Tucker replied, "Yes, He sure did!". We all stayed for supper at Tucker's parent's house that night, and we had the best discussion ever. I shared with everyone how Tucker and I had prayed for Annabell and how Jesus had completely healed her. Annabell knew in her heart that a miracle had happened, but she didn't know how or why. That night I lead Tucker, Flopsy and Tucker's parents to the Lord, it was so exciting! God is so good and he always takes care of his children! I will never forget that night, because it was the best night EVER! Children, did you know that Jesus still does miracles? He loves and cares so much about YOU, and He has the best plan for your life! So, seek Him in all you do!

Today's bible reading

Acts 4:23-31 New International Version (NIV)

²³ On their release, Peter and John went back to their own people and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them. ²⁴ When they heard this, they raised their voices together in prayer to God. "Sovereign Lord," they said, "you made the heavens and the earth and the sea, and everything in them.

²⁵ You spoke by the Holy Spirit through the mouth of your servant, our father David:

"Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain?

²⁶ The kings of the earth rise up and the rulers band together

against the Lord

and against his anointed one.^[a]^[b]

²⁷ Indeed Herod and Pontius Pilate met together with the Gentiles and the people of Israel in this city to conspire against your holy servant Jesus, whom you anointed. ²⁸ They did what your power and will had decided beforehand should happen. ²⁹ Now, Lord, consider their threats and enable your servants to speak your word with great boldness. ³⁰ Stretch out your hand to heal and perform signs and wonders through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

³¹ After they prayed, the place where they were meeting was shaken. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and spoke the word of God boldly.
